

Graduates of Bachelor of Arts in Thai for Communication are expected to have excellence in using Thai language for communication both in business contexts and daily life. They also have technology expertise and ability to select technology resource.